

Arriving to open Boulevard's 30th Anniversary Season is a theatrical "package" of love and laughter: HANDLE WITH CARE.

If you enjoyed last April's standing-room-only staging of the pharmaceutical farce Rx at the Plymouth Church, you'll adore this charming, affecting tale of a Jewish grandmother and granddaughter traveling across backwoods America and the men who cross their paths (and hearts!).

Circumstances, both hilarious and tragic, bring together the young Israeli granddaughter, who has little command of English, and a young American man, who has little command of romance. Is their inevitable love an accident...or is it destiny, generations in the making? HANDLE WITH CARE is an engaging, 100-minute script which reminds us of the power of redemption. Here are a few more quotes about other productions:

"A hilarious and heartwarming romantic comedy..." –NY Times.

"...the story of the beauty in tragedy, the rekindling of faith, and realizing that you're found in translation..." –Jewish Week.

"A romantic comedy you'll remember fondly well into next year... the play is a perfect date to attend with friends and lovers." –Ithaca Times.

Visit www.boulevardtheatre.com for tickets (charge payments) and to review attendance policies. Tickets, if available, will be sold at the door, but ONLY cash accepted at the door. We strongly encourage booking tickets via the website. Patrons were turned away for April's Rx, because they waited until the final week. Handle this "theatrical package" with the care it so richly deserves. Reserve/attend early in the run.
